

Knowledge Sharing in Manufacturing Workshop
Medical Teaching Centre, MTC Seminar Room,
Worsley Building - Level 8
University of Leeds
12 noon – 4-30pm Thursday 15 September 2005

This is an opportunity to explore the benefits provided by several 'leading edge' technologies and processes and to understand better how they could be introduced into your company. Presentations will be given by leading academic speakers at the University of Leeds and the University of Hull (plus one speaker from Renishaw plc) together with advice on some practical ways to support their introduction into your company.
